Title I, Part A School-Level Parent and Family Engagement Policy

This policy describes the means for carrying out designated Title I, Part A parent and family engagement requirements pursuant to ESSA Section 1116(c).

To involve parents in the Title I, Part A programs, the following practices have been established:

- Student and parent meet individually with the principal, vice principal or counselor prior to enrollment to develop an understanding of the student's needs and how the school program can meet those needs.
- Additional opportunities for students and families to meet with school staff to improve student achievement include participation in Back to School Night and Open House.
- Student/Parent conferences may be initiated by the student, parent or a school staff member at any point to discuss how best to improve student academic achievement.

The school involves parents of Title I, Part A students in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of the school's Title I, Part A programs and the Title I, Part A parent involvement policy (ESSA Section 1116[c][3]).

- All students, parents, staff and community members are invited to any School Site Council or Title 1 meeting to contribute to the development and review of the schoolwide plan. Due to the nature of enrollment at the school, the plan may be reviewed and revised at any point during the school year to enhance school parent involvement.
- The principal will coordinate with the School Site Council Chair to establish how the policy is developed to meet the needs of the W. Daylor HS community and to ensure that the policy is implemented.
- Parent and student surveys will be administered by Research and Evaluation, and the results reviewed for possible policy revisions. Additional surveys may be administered and reviewed as determined by the School Site Council.
- Persons with contributions and/or feedback may also contact the principal at any point throughout the year.

The school offers a flexible number of meetings for Title I, Part A parents, such as meetings in the morning or evening (ESSA Section 1116[c][2]).

The school will hold a flexible number of meetings at varying times, and may provide transportation, child care, and/or home visits, paid for with Title I funding as long as these services relate to parental involvement.

The school will use a variety of methods to communicate when these meetings will be held, including phone, text and email messaging services and posting the information on the school website.
